

UNIT 17

Unit 17 / garden don't care accessibility & transit notes

Accessibility:

- The garden is accessible from the alley between 4th and 5th Avenues off of Bayswater Street. Various grasses, weeds and hay cover the garden floor, creating a slightly uneven ground. There are 4 stairs down and a step up into the studio, with a doorway over 3 feet wide.
- The gallery is accessible from the street on 4th Avenue, with a doorway over 3 feet wide.
- The doorway between the gallery and studio is 1 foot 11 inches wide, not wheelchair accessible.
- The doorway to the bathroom off the studio is 1 foot 11 inches wide, with a step up. The self contained gender neutral bathroom is not wheelchair accessible; however, we will accommodate the needs of our guests as they arise.
- Detailed accessibility information is available by request.

Transit:

- Bus routes 2, 44 and 84 are accessible within 2 blocks east of the gallery.
- The 84 is the closest connection to Vancouver's Skytrain (Olympic Village station).
- The 99 B-Line is 5 blocks south of the gallery, two blocks east, which connects to Broadway City Hall Skytrain station.
- There is limited parking in the alley, with additional free parking along 4th Avenue, 5th Avenue and Bayswater Street.
- Detailed transit information is available by request.
